

Dr. Channahsorah has twenty years' experience in dissertation consulting, quantitative statistical analysis, and qualitative analysis. Also 20-plus years in combined federal, state, and independent management consulting, including directing nationwide crosscutting policy studies and program analysis, research, and HHS Department-wide strategic planning. Extensive involvement in developing and leading various teams for planning and conducting studies. Many years of Grant Review work, as a federal official and as Chair of Grant Review Panels, including 2018 and 2019. Evaluation responsibilities: developing and leading national research & evaluation projects related to ACF programs and developing plans for national ACF projects, HHS-wide programs, Dept of Education, etc. Leadership includes directing strategic and annual performance planning and reporting.